

SEEKING VOLUNTEER HOST FAMILIES IN GUELPH

One spare room and a willingness to share your home is all that is required!
Enrich your family life without leaving home!
Share your experience of Guelph directly with our Youth Volunteers!

Be part of something worthwhile!

Guelph has been selected again to host nine Ukrainian and nine Canadian youth as part of the Canada World Youth program. These young people are between 17 and 24 years of age. They will live and learn with local host families and volunteer in the community.

We are currently seeking enthusiastic people willing to share their home from November 30, 2013 to February 21, 2014
with a young Canadian and a youth from Ukraine

The Facts...

- You don't have to have two bedrooms. One bedroom in a welcoming family environment is all that is needed
- Family" is broadly defined in the CWY context and can include singles, retired couples, single parents, anyone with a genuine curiosity about the world!
- CWY volunteers are involved in volunteering, community activities and learning in the daytime ( Monday – Friday)
- Host families receive an honourarium/stipend of $180 per pair/wk to help cover costs. CWY covers all medical and program related expenses.
- All participants have undergone a rigorous selection process, and agree to abide by strict program rules.
- CWY volunteers are expected to actively participate in your household, including sharing in chores.
- Two project supervisors will be working full-time in Guelph to support the program.
